Power to ERCs

3502. SHRI ABANI ROY : Will the Minister of POWER be pleased to State :

(a) whether the attention of Government has been drawn to the media report captioned 'Power lack teeth, study';

(b) if so, whether the Electricity Regulatory Commissions in the country are not given adequate powers to deal with various problems;

(c) if so, the facts thereof and whether Government purpose to give more powers to ERCs; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF POWER (SHRIMATI JAYAWANTI MEHTA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) The Electricity Regulatory Commissions (ERC) Act, 1998 provides for powers and functions of Central Electricity Regulatory Commission (CERC) as well as State Electricity Regulatory Commissions (SERCs). Functions of CERC are stipulated in section 13 of the ERC Act. As regards SERCs, States have been given flexibility in regard to setting up of Regulatory Commissions as also in terms of conferring certain functions on them. Sub-section (1) of section 22 of the Act stipulates mandatory functions of SERCs while Sub-section (2) of section 22 provides for optional functions which may be conferred upon the SERCs by the State Government if they so choose. While the thrust of the ERC Act, 1998 was primarily on transferring powers of tariff fixation/regulation to the Regulatory Commissions, the Electricity Bill, 2003 as passed by Lok Sabha has provisions empowering the Regulatory Commissions on some other aspects of regulation as well.
